PUBLIC LIABILITY POSTER The Manager is to display these procedures in a position prominent to all employees (but out of sight of customers). ACCIDENT REPORTING AND INVESTIGATION It is the responsibility of employees to report promptly to the Manager all accidents and incidents involving third parties, including - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All serious bodily injury incidents;</li> <li>• Any injury involving a fractured/broken bone;</li> <li>• Concussion;</li> <li>• Any injury requiring serious medical attention, i.e. stitches;</li> <li>• Any incident requiring an ambulance to be called;</li> <li>• Any incident involving an aggressive customer who makes mention of taking the matter further, regardless of the severity of injury.</li> </ul> The Manager must investigate the matter and complete and return a full Incident Report within 24 hours of the accident. WHAT IF THE INCIDENT OCCURS WITHOUT MY KNOWLEDGE? Your customers should be informing you of incidents that occur in areas that are your responsibility. It is the Manager's responsibility to have a method of capturing your customers' incidents. Any incident that potentially could result in liability to you needs to be reported to Proclaim (Attention to Richard Thomas or Chelsea Jiang) for immediate assessment. FIRST AID AND WHAT SHOULD YOU DO AFTER A CUSTOMER INCIDENT Provide a high standard of care and response. If you have staff members trained in first aid ensure they assist to the extent possible. If requested by the injured person call for a supervisor, a person experienced in first aid, a doctor/ambulance, or the injured person should be accompanied to the nearest medical surgery/hospital. Call an ambulance or doctor for serious injuries. *While you should not admit liability, that is not an excuse for not providing a high standard of care. * INCIDENT REPORT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complete the Incident Report/Customer Injury form as soon as the injured person departs</li> <li>• Witnesses should be identified on the Incident Report</li> <li>• Ensure you have accurate detail of the injured person (including contact details) and have recorded details of the injury</li> <li>• If it is a slip or fall injury, inspect the area the incident occurred for reasons for the fall. Also note the customer's footwear or any other factor that may have contributed to the incident (intoxication, skylarking, lack of supervision)</li> </ul> FOLLOW UP! The person who attended to an injured customer should work with Proclaim as they will follow up within a week to ensure the customer is OK. Any complaints should be recorded and communicated to Proclaim (Richard Thomas or Chelsea Jiang). WHAT IF THEY ASK ME TO PAY BILLS? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Any request for payment of medical bills or compensation should be directed to our accident management team at Proclaim Attention to Richard Thomas or Chelsea Jiang</li> </ul> HOW DO I COMPLETE THE INCIDENT REPORT FORM? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To complete an internet Incident Report Form go to: www.proclaim.com.au</li> </ul> USERNAME: _____ PASSWORD: _____
